

32 Bowthorpe Drive, Gloucester, GL3 4FS

Asking Price £365,000

Situated at the end of Bowthorpe Drive in Brockwoth on the popular "Coopers Edge Development" is this superb family home which is offered for sale in excellent decorative order, and boasts fantastic views over open greenery, rarely found within a modern estate.

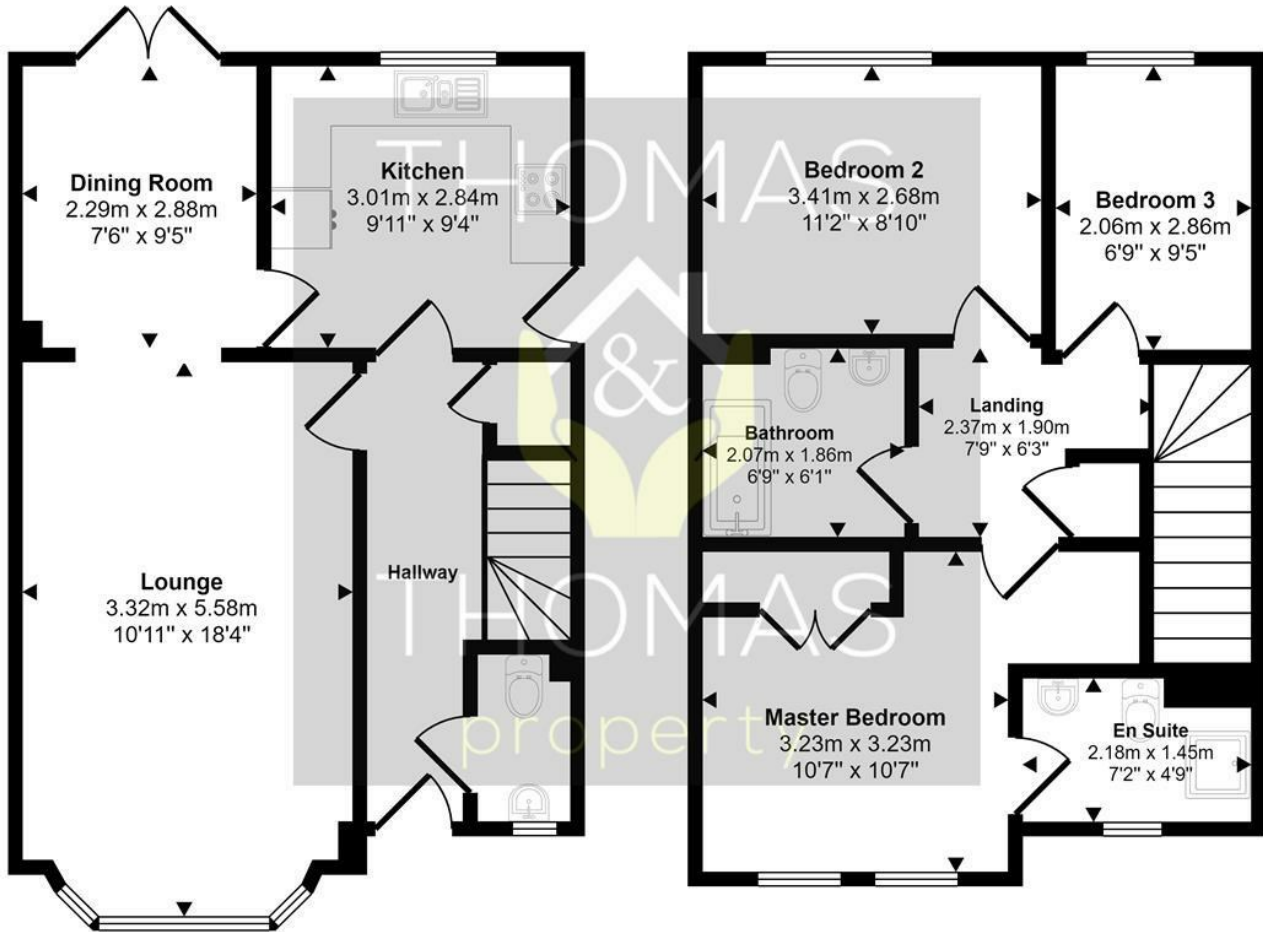

Internally the property offers spacious accommodation which comprises, an entrance hall, a generous lounge with bay window, a separate dining room, kitchen and W/C facilities completing the ground floor. On the first floor are three spacious bedrooms, where the master further benefits from en suite facilities and fitted wardrobes. A further family bathroom offers a three piece suite, fully tiled also with shower facilities.

The current owner purchased the property from new where they chose to upgrade some of their internal fixtures and furnishings, from tiling through to the solid oak flooring laid partly throughout the ground floor. Externally a lean-to has been added to rear of the property creating a great entertaining space and fitted on top of a new patio which the current owners also had laid. Additional to this, the garden is mostly laid to lawn with gated side access and integral access to the garage which is also equipped with both power and light. Parking is available for two vehicles in front of the garage.
